

7th FENS Forum of European Neuroscience
Amsterdam July 3-7, 2010
CALL FOR TRAVEL FELLOWSHIPS
for young Italian neuroscientists

The Italian Society for Neuroscience (SINS) will award 17 stipends to its student members for the participation to the FENS Forum 2010 (<http://forum.fens.org/2010>) with a presentation.

Fellowships will be awarded by the Board of the SINS based on a comparative evaluation of the scientific value of the applicants' CV and publications.

The amount of each fellowship will be 600 Euros.

The applicant should be:

- a student member of the Italian Neuroscience Society (i.e. below age 35, Italian citizen or resident, with no permanent position)
- first author on an abstract to be presented at the Forum

Fellowships will be awarded to young researchers having already received a PhD degree or without a PhD degree.

Applications should contain:

1. Personal data form (see below);
2. Copy of ID or passport;
3. CV together with a list of publications;
3. Declaration of no permanent position by the Laboratory Head (specifying whether the candidate has a doctorate degree or not)
5. Copy of the abstract submitted to the FENS meeting.

Applicants are eligible only if they are already SINS members or if they submit the SINS membership application form (downloadable from the SINS website) together with the fellowship application.

Applications should be in English.

A copy of this call is available on the SINS web site (www.sins.it).

DEADLINE: April 2nd, 2010

Applications should be submitted only via e-mail or fax to:

Professor GianCarlo Panzica
SINS Secretary General
Department of Anatomy, Pharmacology and Forensic Medicine
Corso Massimo D'Azeglio 52
10126 Torino – Italy
fax: +39 011 2367970
email: segreteria@sins.it

The list of winners will be announced on the SINS Web site (www.sins.it) by April 30, 2010.

Please note that candidates may apply to several societies but may not obtain several stipends. The stipend will be given after the Forum on receipt of a certificate of attendance.
