

PHD MEETING IN NEUROSCIENCE, NAPOLI, 13 MARCH 2020

GUIDELINES FOR ABSTRACT SUBMISSION

Submission deadline: 11.59 pm (local time) on February 13, 2020.
Abstracts submitted after this deadline will not be taken into consideration.
Each abstract must be in English and structured as shown below.
The abstract must be sent to the email box: phdmeetingsins@gmail.com

ABSTRACT STRUCTURE

Title: Write the title in bold Arial. The number of words available for the title is limited to 20.

List of authors: First enter the name and then the surname of the author presenting the abstract. First upper case letter and subsequent lower case letters. If the author has more than one name, enter only the first of the other names in upper case. Eg Giuseppe M Bianchi.

Affiliations: Write the name of the Division, of the Department, followed by the name of the University or research body.

Abstract: The maximum number of words available for the abstract (excluding names and affiliations) is 300. The abstract must be written in abstract 12, single spaced, structured as follows:

Introduction and objectives:

Results:

Conclusions:

Research Area:

Enter the text for each section in the corresponding text field.

OTHER INFORMATION

Bibliography: It must be inserted in the text, indicating the first author and the year, e.g. (Rossi et al., 2015).

Research area: It is necessary to select from the list, below, the research area most pertinent to the content of the submitted abstract work:

1. Development
2. Excitability, synaptic transmission, network functions
3. Disorders of the nervous system
4. Sensory and motor systems
5. Sleep, autonomic and neuroendocrine systems
6. Cognition and behavior
7. Novel Methods and Technology Development

Presentation type:

The Scientific Commission will select the scientific contents to be presented as posters or oral communications and will send information on this by 01 March 2020